

Use case diagram for the record center activities

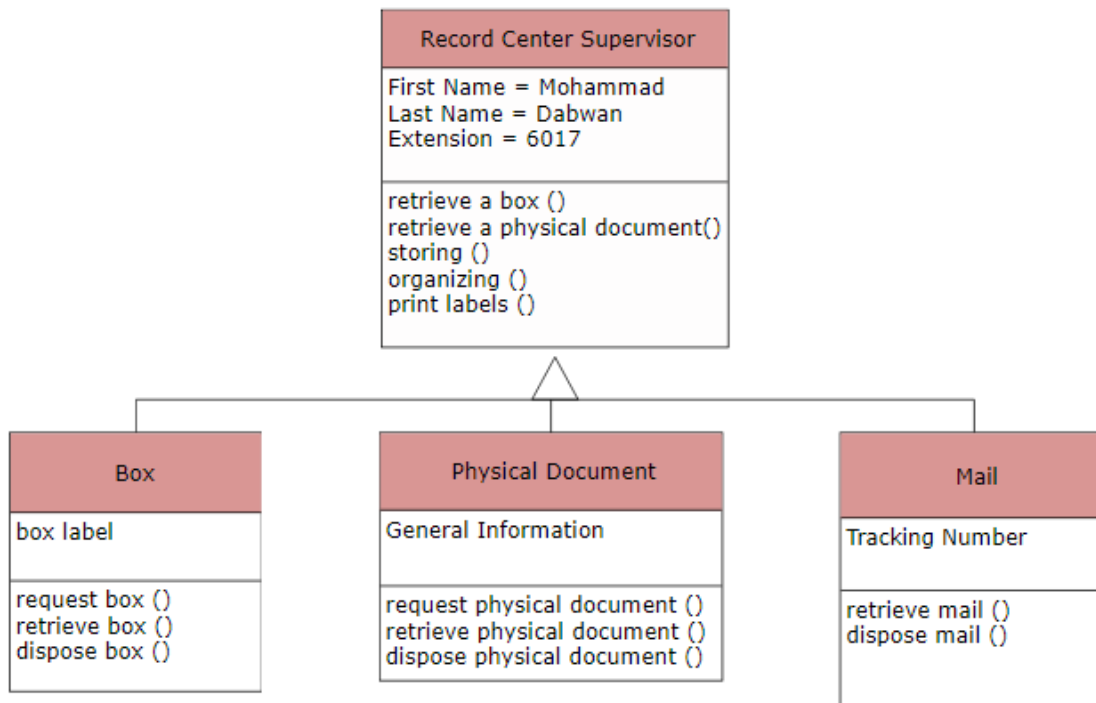

Sequence diagram for the record center activities in general.

Sequence Diagram: Record Center

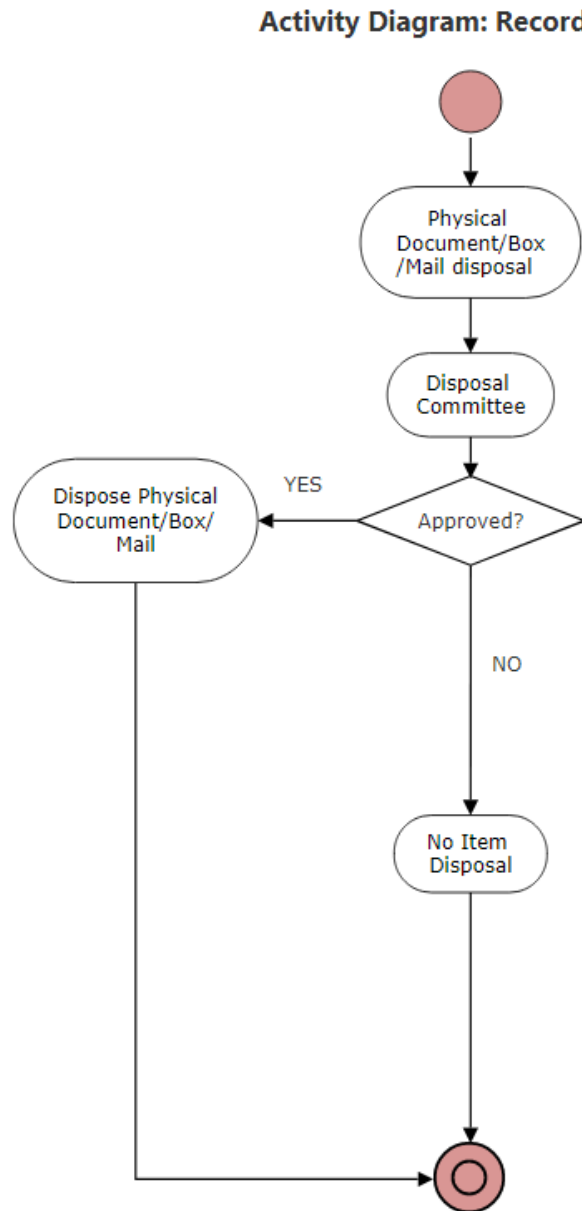

Class diagram for the record center activities, each class consist of

- Name of the class
- Attributes that describe the properties of the class
- Operations that are related to the class

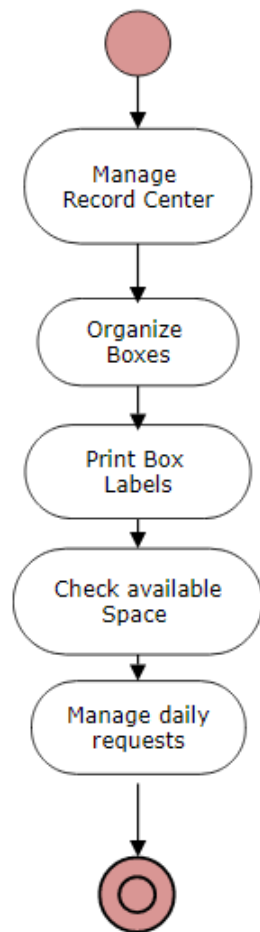

Activity diagram for the record center, associated with dispose physical document/box use case.

Associated with Manage Record Center use case.

Activity Diagram: Record Center

This use case description will describe the normal flow of events that is associated with the (dispose a physical document/box) use case.

Use Case Name: dispose a physical document/box		ID:1	Importance Level: High
Primary Actor: -Record center supervisor		Use Case Type: detail, essential
Stakeholders and Interests: -IDB employee requests to dispose a physical document/box. -Record center supervisor wants to ensure the request is approved.
Brief Description: this use case describes how the record center supervisor disposes the physical document/box.
Relationships: Association: record center supervisor, IDB employee, Disposal committee Include: decision from department, decision by retention period Extend: - Generalization: -
Normal Flow of Events: 1. IDB employee request to dispose a physical document/box. 2. Record center supervisor takes the request. 3. Record center supervisor asks for disposal approval from disposal committee. 4. Approval committee accept/reject disposal request. 4.1 If the request is approved, record center supervisor disposes the physical document/box. 4.2 If the request is rejected, record center supervisor will keep the physical document/box. 5. Record center supervisor will follow up with the process.			